

THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

LEESBURG, VIRGINIA

1804

1934

CONGREGATION FOUNDED 1782

"LORD THOU HAST BEEN OUR REFUGE FROM ONE GENERATION TO ANOTHER."

"O COME LET US WORSHIP, AND FALL DOWN,
AND KNEEL BEFORE THE LORD OUR MAKER."

Star-like amid the green of aged boughs,
You shine, O little House of God, the home
Of all our life's most precious, sacred vows;
Calm resting place where at the last we come
And crave a bed. Like children, who, when dark
Has hushed their song and play, turn tiredly
Toward the waiting mother-arms and hark
To her sweet song,—so likewise, we.

But not alone at night-fall, have we need
Of you, dear Alma Mater of our souls!
When early morning's misty beauty rolls
Across our lives, or noon with restless speed
Comes on, we pause, and linger by your shade,
For tryst with One, the God who gives us aid.
