

DAVIDSON COLLEGE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

DAVIDSON, NORTH CAROLINA

H. M. MOFFETT, D. D., MINISTER

1909-1912.

To the Anniversary Congregation,
of the Presbyterian Church,
Leesburg, Va.

May 6, 1934.

One hundred and thirty years of proclaiming and witnessing the Glorious Gospel of Redeeming Grace !

Who can measure the abiding results in devotion to Christ, transformed character, life lived to the glory of God, and hope eternal, living and realized ?

I think, today, of those whose bodies sleep,
but whose victorious lives live on in witnessing power -
That invisible company, none the less present with you today, joining in your praise, sharing your gratitude to Him whose grace has not failed this Church and its people, and uniting in the prayer that the Leesburg Presbyterian Church may be, down the years in creasingly a witnessing Church, interpreting to men in terms of daily life Him, whom to know aright is Life Eternal.

Grateful for the years of service in which we joined our hearts and prayers; the lessons learned through our common experience, and the abiding fellowship realized, I am present in spirit with you on this day of blessed memories, grateful praise and earnest re-dedication.

Your former pastor,

H. M. Moffett
