Dear Fellow Workers:

As Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in the U. S., I want the privilege of congratulating you upon this occasion of the 135th. Anniversary of the organization of your Church. God alone can estimate the results of all these years of devoted service. I covet for you many, many years of living for others. Happiness can only be found by lives that reflect Jesus' life of unselfish devotion to those who need His help.

As church members we should remember that often the rich need more than the poor, the devoted love and tenderness of the Christ, and rich and poor alike are in need of the same Savior. With all good wishes, I am

Yours most cordially,

WME/B

Moderator, General Assembly
Presbyterian Church in the U.S.
